NEW PASTORAL ASSIGNMENTS IN THE SOUTH BAHAMAS CONFERENCE

By -Administration SBC

The executive committee of the South Bahamas Conference is pleased to announce the following district assignments:

PASTOR LYNDEN WILLIAMS - Assigned to Peardale Seventh-day Adventist Church located on Peardale Road in the Marathon/Wulff Road area. Pastor Paul Scavella, president of the South Bahamas Conference, installed him on Saturday, mas Academy.

PASTOR WILFRED ADDERLEY - Assigned to Redemption Seventh-day Adventist Church, which is located on Hanna Road, Fox-Hill. Pastor Peter Joseph, executive secretary of the SBC, installed him on Saturday, December 3, 2011. Pastor Adderley has been serving in the South Bahamas Conference for over 29 years. He was ordained to

PASTOR ASHA-DANE DUNCAN - Assigned to the South Andros District that comprises five churches. Pastor Paul Scavella installed him on Saturday, December 3, 2011. Pastor Duncan comes to South Andros with four years experience in the gospel ministry. He has conducted crusades for Christ in the countries of Jamaica and The Bahamas. As a result of these crusades, hundreds have surrendered

PASTOR KEITH A. ALBURY - Assigned to Good News and Adelaide Seventh-day Adventist Churches. Good News Church in located on Great Britain Way, Flamingo Gardens while Adelaide Church is located in Adelaide. He will be installed on Saturday, December 17, 2011. He accepted the call to the gospel ministry at an early age and has ministered to many in the islands of Exuma, Long

November 26, 2011. Pastor Williams injects a spirit of enthusiasm in life. He has been a pastor for 17 years serving in Eleuthera and New Providence. He was also privileged to serve in the Turks and Caicos Islands. He is grateful for the many challenges that God has presented in his path, as has been a witness to the triumphs wrought in adversity. He is married to Jacqueline, a banker, and they are the proud parents of Joshua and Kyra, both students at Baha-

the gospel ministry and has pastored various churches in New Providence and the Family Islands. He comes to this new district with a wealth of experience. He is married to Sheila, an executive officer and they are the proud parents of adult children, Wilfred II and Matthew. Wilfred, a graduate of Andrews University, is a teacher while Matthew, his second son, is attending Oakwood University in Huntsville, Alabama.

their hearts to God. He is married to Alicia, a nursing practitioner, and they have a bouncing baby girl, Le'Asha.

Island, Eleuthera and New Providence. He is a proud alumnus of Bahamas Academy, Northern Caribbean University and Oakwood University. He is married to Opal, a social worker and they have one daughter, Kaydee.

We pray for these leadership teams as they assume their new assignments. God will use them in a mighty way to bring many souls to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

ADVENTIST MEN IN CONCERT

For the past seven years the Adventist Men Chorale of the South Bahamas Conference has made December a time of great expectancy. You may ask why? Their rich music is an art that many Bahamians have come to appreciate.

of thanksgiving. The chorale will remind us of the birth, life, death, and soon return of Christ, who reigns as King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Tickets for the event are available at the Adventist Book Centre on Tonique Williams-Darling Highway, or can be purchased at the door. This spiritual event will be a blessing to every member of the family. In fact, the men look forward to your presence as they celebrate Christ in this festive season.

As we move to the close of this year let us remember to make Christ the centre and reason for our living. It is our prayer that the Seventh-day Adventists' presence will be felt as we join others in pointing our fellow countrymen to the foot of the cross where Christ makes the difference.
